

11.30 a.m.—11.45 a.m. Recess

- |                           |        |  |
|---------------------------|--------|--|
| N. Moldovany       | BRD    | — Application of leaf fertilizers in countries with semi-continental climate                   |
| T. N. Kulakovskaya | USSR   | — Soil and climate conditions and efficiency of fertilizers in Nonchernozem zone               |
| T. Holubowicz      | Poland | — The effect of various doses of fertilizers on growth and yield of young sour cherry orchards |
| A. I. Simakin      | USSR   | — Soil and climate conditions in North Caucasus and efficiency of fertilizers                  |

3.00 p.m.—6.00 p.m. EVENING SESSION

Reports

- |   |                |  |
|---|----------------|--|
| N. S. Avdonin  | USSR           | — New data on liming   |
| K. Schaller  | BRD            | — Relationships between soil testing values and potassium, magnesia and phosphorous content of crape leaves  |
| Z. Fekete,P. Kozma,D. PolyakK. Toth-Suranyk | Hungary        | — Effect of nutrient dynamics of vine soils on plantations   |
| B. A. Yagodin  | USSR           | — Theory and practice of micro-nutrients application   |
| M. Novak,I. Zitova                                    | Czechoslovakia | — Microelements and their role in intensification of plant production  |
| S. ManoilovicM. Zeravica                              | Yugoslavia     | — The efficiency of water-and-citrate soluble phosphates of complex fertilizers on chernozem and other soils |

4.30 p.m.—4.45 p.m. Recess